'Until the very last minute I shared mixed feelings about returning down memory lane 20 years on. However, very quickly I realised how much the school, the staff and my fellow classmates were an important part of who I had become. Spending an evening with my "extended family" offered all the fun and surprises one can hope for while rekindling lost friendships. As a result I will be meeting up again with fellow Sennockians over the summer and in the fall in Paris or Provence.'
